BOWL AWAY FOR HERALD PRIZES.

Three Crack Teams to Begin Play in the Great Amateur Champion Tournament.

IVANHOE - PHŒNIX - ROSEVILLE

The Board of Managers of the Amateur Athletic Union Discuss Important Matters at Boston.

HE day to which amsteur bowlers everywhere have long looked forward has arrived, and before midnight the opening se-HERALD Champion Bowling Tournament will have been won and lost. The initial game on the Academy alleys, Nos. 116 and 118 East Fourteenth street, this evening, will bring together the crack Ivanhoe and Phonix clubs, of this city. Both organizations beast players of unusual merit, and as it will require their best efforts to win an interesting game and high scores are expected. After this game is finished the fa-mous Roseville Athlotic Club team, which held the championship of the Amateur Athletic Bowling League last season, will meet the losers.

The "big five," as the Rosevilles are called, have been training like Trojans for this tournament, and the team that beats them will know they have been bowling. The Phoenix boys have been putting in good practice licks on the Knickerbocker Cottage alleys, and are now in the pink of condition. They will take a lot of beating to-night. The Ivanhoes have been hitting the ten pine very accurately in practice lately, and should make a good showing. In the third game of the evening the winners of the first and second games will meet, and a lively contest is sure to result.

EVERYDOOT IS INTERESTED.

Interest in the Herald tournament is unprecedented. In no other similar tourney has so much excitement and feeling been manifested, either by bowlers or those who enjoy witnessing a well played game of the favorite winter pastime. It can also be said that in no tournament ever held has such a fine class of bowlers been entered. The has such a fine class of bowlers been entered. The teams which will struggle for the Herand cups and the bowlers who will try for the Herand individual modals represent the most skilful twirlers of the wooden sphere in the world.

In business and club circles and on the different exchanges the tournament has been discussed for weeks past, and the opinion vouchsafed by many is that it will be a most successful affair. It is predicted by many that several of the records for both team and individual scores will be equalled or beaten.

team and individual scores will be equalited by boaten.

TRUB ALLEYS FOR THE BOWLERS.

The alloys on which the tournament will be rolled have been thoroughly renovated. The strips have been planed to a smoothness and trueness that should insure the best possible work. New balls and pins have also been provided. In auticipation of the large crowds which will attend the games the seating capacity of the room has been enlarged. No admission fee will be charged, and all who love good bowling are welcome. In order to insure pure air and an even temperature three massive electric air fans have been placed in the alloys and will be in operation during the tourney. The games will be started each night precisely at eight o'clock.

A.A.U. BOARD OF MANAGERS. MANY IMPORTANT QUESTIONS CONSIDERED AT THE BOSTON MEETING YESTERDAY IDY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD, I

Bosron, Mass., Feb. 15, 1891. HE Amateur Athletic Union Board of Managers held a meeting this morning at the Boston Athletic Association club house to consider a number of im portant questions. There were present Harry Mo-Millan, Athletic Club, fohuylkill Navy; J. E. Sullivan, New Jersey A.C.; W. B. Curtis, New York A.C.;

G. B. Morrison, Boston A.A.; F. W. Janssen, Staten Island A.C.; C.F. Mathewson, Berkeley A.C., and Judge Tighe, Varuna Boat

The question of paying the expenses of athletes and of limiting the value of prizes was deferred until the "reorganization meeting" to be held March 18 in New York. Probably there is a possibility of a big kick over the report of the conference committees of the League American Wheelmen and Amateur Athletic Union on this point, the A.A.U. men seeming to regard the proposed rule to govern expenses as entirely too stringent. A BIG SCHEME ON FOOT.

At to-day's meeting Mesers, McMillan and Mathewson were appointed a committee of two to attend the annual meeting of the L.A.W., which takes place to-morrow. The scheme on foot is to bring all bodies governing smateur sport nearer together so that a perfect understanding may be reached and less puerile quarrels occur. If this proves successful the Amateur Athletic Union will be on successful the Amateur Ataletic Union will be on intimate terms with the fleague of American Wheelmen, the National Association of Amateur Carsmen, the National Cross Country Association and the National Lawn Tennis Association. In this way all amateurs charged with professionalism or violation of the amateur laws will be tried by a joint committee.

violation of the amateur laws will be tried by a joint committee.

At to-morrow's meeting of the L.A.W. Messrs. Mathewson and McMillan will recommend that the L.A.W. elect a delegate to the Board of Managers of the A.A.U. This will be the first step toward the proposed "purification of amateur sports" scheme. The disqualified lacrosse players who offended the auster A.A.U.by playing at the recent Madison Square Garden tournament were, with the exception of the Druids, reinstated because they sent in a satisfactory explanation of their action, to the effect that they marely played in the tournament to boom the game and were ignorant of any possible violation of the rules. The Druids will probably explain their case in short order.

DIFFALO MAY BUSICKETED.

The matter of, the indoor championship meeting came up for a long consideration. The syes of the managers seem to have been turned toward Buffalo, and they have appointed E. C. Carter to look over the ground and see what the Buffalo Athletic Club is willing to do toward managing the affair.

These cluis were elected to membership:—Riverside Ret Club at Gardenies.

These clubs were elected to membership:—Riverside Boat Club, of Cambridge, Masa: Cloveland A.C., of Cleveland, Ohlo; Worcestor A.C., of Worcester, Mass.; National Rowing Club, of Huffaio; Queens City A.C., of Buffalo, and Xavier A.A., of New York.
The application of the Metropolitan A.C., of New York, was rejected.
J. B. Denny, of New York, and R. E. Bunnett, of Rochester, were reinstated to the amutour ranks. Other

The following dates were allowed:—knetrainments—March 2, Prespect Harriers, at Brooklys; March 7, Prince A.C., at New York, March 9, Whiter A.C., at New York, March 9, Whiter A.C., at New York, March 9, Prince A.C., at New York, March 9, Prince A.C., at Staten 17, Bridge A.C., and Standard A.C., at Forward 24, Richmond Gounty A.C., at Staten Island.

Several minor matters were considered, but no action taken.

MR. BOWIE'S ATHLETIC REWARDS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.] MONTREAL, Que., Feb. 15, 1891 .- Mr. D. E. Bowie advocate here, is winner of the Bannett Cup, given to encourage American college foot racing. Bowie was living in Paris recently, and while there went into the athletic world extensively. He introduced lacrosse as a game into the National League of Physical Education, an association sub-League of Physical Education, an association subsidized by the French government to train up young men to athletic sports. Mr. Bowle was told by M. Pascal Grousse, president of the League, that he had only revived the game; that it had been French first, was taken by Monteain to Carada and was adopted by the Indians of North America and lost to France until revived by Mr. Bowle.

The League sends Bowle a diploma on parchment containing its arms and insignia of the Republic, and also a handsome silver medal more than twice the size of an ordinary racing medal. It is richly chased and has on one side the head of the Goddess of Liberty and on the other side the inscription of presentation.

THE HORSE AND CARRIAGE TRADE.

Dealers Happy Over the Prospects of a Revival of Business with the Approach of Spring.

WHAT IS DOING IN BULL'S HEAD.

News and Gossip of the Men That Make and Sell Wheeled Vehicles.

OME of the slowness that is characteristic of the winter trade in horses and carriages is now departing and dealers are coincidentally happy. The past dull season, though not as bad as some that have preceded it during the past years, has been fully slow enough, and the men that are ergaged in selling horses and wheeled vehicles are more than glad that the spring is not far distant. Business always picks up with the departure of the cold months and continues brisk until well into the summer. Carriage makers are now putting their new styles into the market, and the horse dealers are bustly receiving and arranging their consignments from the breeding regions. Prices in the Bull's Head district remain very steady. Matched carriage pairs may be obtained for from $750 to $1,600, according to quality; saddle horses, $350 to $900 each; good drivers, $300 to $700 each; cams of draught horses, $450 to $900, and business horses, $200 to $325 each.

IN AND AROUND BULL'S HEAD. This will be a brisk week in the auction marts. Fiss & Doerr this morning will sell at the Blue Front Stables, No. 147 East Twenty-fourth street, 150 head of first class Western horses, bred in Illinois, Iowa and Missouri. They are suited to private family and general business purposes and will be sold without reserve. In the lot are a number of handsome saddle horses and some very fine car riage teams, well matched and good actors. There are also some speedy drivers. Two days' trial is given, and if the horse sold does not prove to be as represented money will be refunded promptly. Fiss & Doerr will hold a special sale on Wednesday norning at No. 250 Lorraine street, South Brooklyn, when eight carloads of Western horses will be disposed of to the highest bidder.

The regular semi-weekly sale of Whitson & Son will be held at the stable No. 144 East Twentyfourth street, this morning, when a hundred choice horses will pass through the auctioneer's hands. A guarantee accompanies each animal sold, unless otherwise specified. Visitors to the Whitson stable can now examine a consignment of fast Kentucky trotters and pacers which are offered at private sale. Three of the pacers have shown under a 2:40 gait and down to 2:20, while four of the trotters can do from 2:40 to 2:24. Beside these under a 2:40 gait and down to 2:20, while four of the trotters can do from 2:40 to 2:24. Beside these there are several fine saddle horses and a number of good roadsiers. The pacers and trotters, however, are the gems of the lot.

Although the firm of Seligman & Hahn, of No.
164 East Twenty-fourth street, embarked in the auction business less than a month ago, their sales have already become one of the features of the Bull's Head trade. Mr. David Seligman acts as auctioner, and losss very little time in getting the best of prices without undue delay. The firm's next sale will be held to-morrow morning, the stock to be knocked down consisting of draught and business horses from Hilmois and Ohlo, and drivers and business horses from Jowa. Upward of two hundred head will be oftered.
The Tuesday morning sales of horses held by two establishments in Newark, N. J., attract many buyers from the metropolis. At Baney's Horse Exchange, No. 495 Broad street, two hundred head will be sold to-morrow morning. Among them are a toam of bays, 16 hands, with fine style and knes action; a pair of dark brown cobs and a pair of rod bays, 1634 hands.
Mr. John B. Morehouse, of the Great Eastern Stables, No. 620 Broad street, Nowark, has in stock nearly four hundred head of horses, a majority of which will be auctioned off to-morrow morning.
They include drivers, trotters, pacers and saddlers, some with well known pedigrees.

AT VAN TASELL & REANNEY's.

Prospective buyers of either horses or cavriages can scarcely fail to find what they want at the establishment of Van Tassell & Kearney, No. 130 East Thirteenth street. A splendid stock of carriages is continually offered at private sale, while twice in each week choice lots of both carriages and horses are sold at auction. Among the horses that will be disposed of to-morrow morning are:—Darus, chestnut gelding, 16 hands, six years old, by Thorndale, has trotted a half mile over Fleetwood in 1:20 and disposed of to morrow morning are:—Darus, chest-nut gelding, 16 bands, six years old, by Thorndale, has trotted a half mile over Fleetwood in 1:20 and a full mile over same track in 2:38%; and Little Drummer, bay pacing gelding, 15% hands, soven years old, by Marmaduke, dam Kate Filler, can beat 2:30.

Drummer, bay pacing gelding, 15½ hands, seven years old, by Marmaduke, dam Kate Filler, can best 2:30.

AMONG THE CARRIAGE DEALERS.

In common with the other dealers Mr. William H. Gray, of No. 20 Wooster street, is preparing his whole stock for the coming spring trade, now not very far oft. New styles of the lighter wheeled vehicles, for town and country use during the warmer months, are being placed in the show rooms, and many novelties in carriages are offered to intending buyers. Mr. Gray disposed of the greater portion of his stock of steighs when the snow was on the ground about the holidays, and the coming of spring will not compel him to store away many of these winter vehicles until another season. Mr. Gray has a growing foreign trade, and last week sold several carriages which will be shipped to Bermuda and the West Indies.

Broome street to display the many varieties of vehicles that they have in stock. They can furnish anything that runs on wheels from the thiest cart to the heaviest and largest coach. Their assortment of broughams is particularly attractive, including the extension front, corner glass front, scroll pillar, C opping, very light and physicians broughams. The linest of rocksways may be found here, together with all manner of fashionable landaus, victorias and wagonettes, handsome in style and of superior workmanship. The display at this establishment is bewildering.

The Henry Killiam Company, of Broadway and Fifty-fourth street, has been in the carriage business for nearly half a century, having been established in 1848, and as a result of this long experience is enabled to offer the very beet grades of carriages at the very lowest prices. Among the apecial to subject a stable of the transfer of the slong experience is enabled to offer the very beet grades of carriages at the very lowest prices. Among the apecial to subject a subject of the larges of the harmes.

front landaus and coaches. Their display of harness is unexcelled.

The H. H. Babcock Company, of No. 406 Broome street, has on hand carriages, sleghs, harness, saddles, robes, blankets, whips, Nc., in almost endless variety. The gentleman with a horse can fit the animal out in the very best of style at the establishment of this firm, which, being one of the oldest in the business, has built up a large trade and an enviable reputation. Prices have been reduced materially in anticipation of the spring trade.

James W. Renwick, of No. 39 Wooster street, offers some very desirable bargains in second hand vehicles, almost new, made by some of the best builders in the country. They are of the most approved styles and are in perfect order.

Edward Callanan's Sons, of No. 57 West Forty-fourth street, beside doing a large sales business, make a specialty of carriage repairs.

Business wagons of every description, both new and second hand, can be brooured either from the New York Wagon Company, No. 585 liudson street, or from the Hudson Wagon Company, No. 542 Hudson street.

Brooklyn buyers do not need to come to New York in order to purchase fine and fashionable vehicles, as M. J. Curley keeps a full line in stock at his repository, corner State street and Boerum place.

able paper to a writer endowed with the power to do the subject full justice.
With my weak pen I shall attempt to explain just as it appears to very many people as well as to myself the reason why the Palo Alto sale "caused a disappointment to the sellar and fell below general expectation."

By carofully looking over the list of buyers at the Palo Alto saie you will see that very few purchases were made by residents of this city, and nearly all who bought did so intending te send their purchases out of the city. And why? Simply because there is not a suitable drivaway or soft road where the $5.000,000 worth of troiters owined in the city and saburhs can be specified without doing them an injury, as well as chancing the lives of their drivers.

How many times have I heard the question, and how doing main an injury.

How many times have I heard the question, and how very many isters have I received, asking, "Why is it that there cannot be built a piece of road, where the light harness hurse can be driven in safety, in this great and enterprising city, which stands alone in this respect from almost all other large cities in the Union?"

And from the depths of my heart I too ask, Why is then? No. Mr. Editor, the "trotter has not started on the de-polition in popular cetimation." He is held dear to the react of every true American, who leves no sport equal to that of the trotter in motion. Given a read where with astery he can be speeded, and instead of this city containing $5.000,000 worth of the greatest horses on earth it will own double that amount. Thousands will gather by the readside to miny with heartfelt interest the vision of the famous horses and their drivers, equally famous in finance, society and diterature. iterature. RAPID TRANSIT PROBLEMS AFFECTING REAL ESTATE.

Dealers, Buying Property on the East and West Sides and in the Annexed District, Are Discounting Expected Development.

SIMULTANEOUS EXTENSION POSSIBLE.

Very Likely One System May Centre on the Vanderbilt Lines and the Other on the Sixth and Ninth Avenue "." Ronds.

At the outset of the week the HERALD reported numerous sales of private residences on the lower west side, in the vicinity of West End and Amster dam avenues; also the purchase by leading build ers of vacant lots in the same section.

As the week progressed there was quite a revival of activity on the east side, not so much by permanent investors as by speculators, who quietly secured, especially along Lexington avenue, several parcels for improvement.

At the same time the "small fry" operators continued to be regular buyers in the sunexed district, more so every day as the season progresses This activity over the whole city, and not confined to one speculative locality, has much significance.

In the past New York built up the east side solid to 125th street, went even across the Third ave nue bridge and built up the southern limits of the annexed district east before a single rock or a single shanty was removed from the west side above Seventy-second street. Then, five and six years ago, there came a rush down from the northern section, at least what is now known as Harlem West, and they came, these builders and their backers, like pioneers, sealing the doom of Shantytown. In those five years great operations on the east side were suspended and all eyes were turned to the west.

As time went along and Central Park West (Eighth avenue), Columbus (old Ninth), Amsterdam avenue (old Tenth) were being improved owners and speculators thought they had secured a mon-opoly of New York's real estate market and that at some great distant future another new line of development would become the so-called "tenderloin" for other speculators and owners. A GREAT CHANGE OF POLICY IN INVESTMENTS.

Look at this market to-day. This expectation has vanished, and the policy of the past five years has been changed by new combinations of circumhas been changed by new combinations of circumstances, and all New York, not one section, is the field for operations.

"Times have changed, and the real estate market changes with them," said a quiet operator to me on the Exchange floor. "I am not operating just now because matters are mixed. I am in no hurry, and I want to see the sky clear before I operate again. There is rapid transit assured by a law now enacted. What does it mean? What will it result in to properly owners' benefit? are the questions I must see answered."

"Where will the first improvement be made?" I asked him. "On the west or on the east side?"

"Your question hits the present situation," he replied. "You know we are all here to make money. There is one sot of speculators now who believe that rapid transit will shortly assert itself ou the cast side by some arrangement with the venuce-built roads and the existing cut on Fourth avenue. Hence you see the many purchases of property on Lavington avenue during this work avenue. Hence you see the many purchases of property on Lexington avenue during this very week.

property on Lexington avenue during this very week.

"Again, there are others who believe that the first improvement of rapid transit will be on the west side by the extension of the "L" road on Upper Broadway from the Thirty-third street station, then along the Boulevards. Hence the last week's sales of so many private dwellings and lots on the extreme west side near West End and Amsierdam avenues.

"These men vary in opinions, but they all have the right to them so long as they pay for what they think will come along their path. Hence the peculiar condition of this market just now?"

A STAULYANACUS OUTLOOK.

"Allow me to ask you another question. You said you were not operating just now. Which side of the city will feel the first beneft?"

"I am not authorized to speak for the Commissioners, but their first results will show simultaneous work on both the east and west sides. So the status of the market is not very much out of the way. Only I am waiting for the exact routes on either section and then I'll buy something."

LOOK OUT FOR MR. INMAN'S QUIET WORK.

During the progress of conversation the gentleman who acts as broker for this operator joined us and after the operator had left he added:—"He forgot to tellyou one thing, that is to watch the tleman who acts as broker for this operator joined us and after the operator had left he added:—"He forgot to tellyou one thing, that is to watch the meetings of these Rapid Transit Commissioners when Mr. Inman is present. He has just roturned from a trip wish Jay Gould and you'll find the entire upshot of coming rapid transit outlined in this operator's remarks—underground or depressed roads on the east side, more "L" roads on the west side. Both the Vanderbilt and Gould system will have the call. Mr. Inman also, don't forget, is an appointee of Mayor Grant."

It is this uncertainty that has produced the present novel market and has rather increased than lessened its activity.

GREAT SALES DUE TO NEW YORK'S DEVELOPMENT.

The New York Historical Society, for instance, located during so many years on Second avenue, opposite the famous St. Mark's Church, bought a few days ago the entire front of vacant land on Central Park West, between Seventy-sixth and Seventy-soventh streets, sight lots, and one lot on West Seventy-soventh streets, eight lots, and one lot on West Seventy-soventh street, for about $250,000. And on this plot there will be erected ere-long a club house worthy of the name of the New York Historical Society.

The building now occupied by the American Jockey Club, at the southwest corner of Madison avenue and Twenty-seventh street, has been sold to a prominent liquor dealer. This may not change the status of the club, which is a mere lesses.

George F. Johnson, it was reported on Saturday, has sold Nos. 17 and 19 Broadway for about $350,000. The present seller bought this property about eight years ago for about $200,000.

Morris B. Baer & Co. have sold for Mrs. Hess No. 249 West Forty-eighth street, 20x100, for $17,300.

Mrs. Charles S. Bentley has bought from William P. Anderson No. 162 West Ninety-third street, at three story dwelling on lot 17,5x100.

Annouscemansts of salks This were.

The public market will open to-day by the offoring of several lots on East Ninety-sixth street by L. J. Philippa & Co.

To-morrow, Wednesday and Thursday will be exceedingly busy days. A sale by Auctioneer Harnett, containing valuable plots on Riverside avenue, just north of 16th street, will attract the attention of all west side speculators.

On to-morrow also Auctioneers A. H. Muller & Son will sell several dwellings on St. Nicholas avenue, and 146th street.

John F. B. Smyth will offer considerable property on the same day along Fast 115th street and west hightenth street. An east side corner at avenue B and Fourth street will be sold by day several five story buildings on Coenties slip and Water street. Crook's well known hotel, on Park row (old Chatham street), will be sold on Thursday by Mr. Harnett.

The estate of Stephen G. Fotterall, on Chatham square, Park row, Pearl and Rose streets, will be sold also on Thursday by A. H. Muller & Son. In Brooklyn to-morrow Jere Johnson will sell over two hundred lots on the old Bergen estate, near Bay Ridge. The property is located on the lighth, Ninth, Tenth and Fort Hamilton avenues.

BASSETT MUST GO TO SING SING

Shariff Goldner, of Queens county, received notice from the Supreme Court Saturday morning to remove John M. Bassett from the County Jail to Sing Sing Prison. Nearly a year ago Bassett was convicted of manslaughter in the second degree in Judge Barasra, which was to have been argued on January M. but as no one appeared for the de-fendant at that time the Court has ordered that the sentence be carried out. CAPTAIN BARTLETT NOT UNNERVED.

The little fracas between Corporal Kennedy and Private Weil at the meeting last Tuesday evening of Company D. Twenty-second regiment, which was made public in Saturday's HERALD, has created considerable talk throughout the rank and file of and the application would in all probability be granted.

Captain Bartlett declared that as he was the commandant of Company D he proposed doing the dictating, rather than being dictated to by his men. The refusal of Van Houten to accept the sergeantey by appointment, and declaring he wanted the position by election Captain Bartlett considered rather presumptuous on that young man's part.

STUDIED THE KOCH METHOD.

DR. NEVILLE SPENDS TWO MONTHS IN BERLIN NOTING THE EFFECTS OF LYMPH.

Among the recent arrivals from Berlin of physicians who have been studying the Koch method in the treatment of tuberculous diseases is Dr. John J. Neville, of this city. I saw him yesterday, and besides learning that he brought over lymph enough for five thousand injections I obtained from him a comprehensive account of the method as it is pursued by Professor Koch's assistants in the great Charity Hospital in the German capital. He spent several hours each day in the hospital for a period of two months and was particularly fortunate in obtaining the valuable assistance and friendship of some or the most famous professors of Germany.

While he did not see any patients absolutely cured he saw a great many who had been materially benefited.

"How many deaths occurred in the lymph experiments that might be said to have been hastened by its use?" I asked.

"None where it was used in the proper cases."

"And were there many post-mortem cases indicative of the hastening of death by the use of lymph?"

"I attended four autopsies in which it was discovered that the reaction of the lymph had been fatal. But in all those cases the patient was far advanced in the disease. In a number of cases in the first stages of tuberculesia the improvement from the injection of the lymph was most remarkable."

"Is there much darker attending the use of the the method as it is pursued by Professor Koch's able."

"Is there much darger attending the use of the lymph by members of the medical profession who have not studied the method?"

"There is; particularly in the first stages of laryngial tuberculosis. The reaction in such cases is alarming, and if improperly treated might easily prove fatal."

"Much has been said about the unfavorable attitude of Professor Virchow. Are you personally acquainted with any of the cases in which he operated?"

acquainted with any of the cases in which he operated?"
"I am familiar with some of the cases treated by Professor Virchow, and if the ones I saw in the dead house and at the post-mortom examinations of them are fair samples of the cases he made up his opinion from, it is manifestly unfair that Professor Koch should bear the stigms cast upon him. In one case in particular the subject was far advanced in lung tuberculosis. On opening the chest cavity the left lung was found to have fallen in. There were large caverns, the borders of which were surrounded by a peculiar formation, showing that the lymph had started the process of repair, but the decaying surface was so extensive that the reaction proved fatal."

NOW COMES THE HAVEL

HER MAIDEN VOYAGE FROM THE NEEDLES IN 7 DAYS, 10 HOURS, 35 MINUTES.

In almost every respect the Havel is a counterpart of the Spree. She was built at Stottin, Germany, and she is the twelfth fast mail placed on the New York line by this company. The Havel registers 9,000 tons and she is 485 feet long, 52 feet beam and 38 feet deep, is built of steel and possesses every modern improvement. Fourteen bulkheads make fifteen water tight compartments. There are eighteen lifeboats, ton of steel and eight semi-collapsable boats, with life rafts and other semi-collapsable boats, with life rafts and other life saving apparatus.

The engines are triple expansion, developing 13,000 horse power, and giving a speed of twenty-one knots per hour. They drive a single manganee bronze screw measuring 22½ feet in diameter. There are ten boilers—six of which are double-ended—and forty-sight stoke holes.

Four dynamos furnish light equal to 35,000 candle power. The interior decorations are most elaborate.

OUT EIGHTY-THREE DAYS.

CAPTAIN NORTON'S LIFEBOAT HAS NOT BEEN HEARD OF SINCE SHE SAILED.

Captain Francis L. Norton's steam lifeboat the F. L. Norton, in which the Captain with his wife, niece and seven men, lef: New London for Toulon, France, on November 24, has now been out eightythree days.

No reliable information concerning the boat has been received since the day she left port, and in spite of the Captain's confidence in his boat it is feared she has shared the fate of many a larger vessel.

Besides the Captain and his wife those on board were his niece, Miss Rickaley, Chief Engineer James McNeells, Assistant Engineer Arthur Mc-Lean, Sailing Master C. F. Carlsen, Seameu John Anderson, Oscar Mileyar, Steward Joseph Marcial and cabin boy John Roberts.

LAWYER HOUSTON'S LARK.

George Houston, who says he is a lawyer and that he lives in Trenton, N. J., had to explain his conduct in New York on Saturday to Justice McMahon yesterday in the Jefferson Market Police

With two other men and a woman Houston went into the Coleman House café at half-past two o'clock on Saturday afternoon. The party ate and trank until eight o'clock in the evening. They drank until eight o'clock in the evening. They were so boisterous that the other guests dedined to enter the cafe and the waiters could not induce them to leave. House Detective Coyne finally succeeded in getting the lawyer and his gay companions out, but Houston returned and threatened Coyne and was arrested, but gave bail at the Thirrieth street station.

Houston assured Justice McMahon that he had been overcharged by the waiters at the Coleman House and that when he went back to make a complaint he was arrested.

Houston was fined $5, which he paid.

TRAMPS SCARED THE TENANTS.

Tenants in the flat house at No. 300 West Fortieth street were frightened at half-past two o'clock yesterday morning by smoke which filled their apartments and which seemed to come from the cellar.

Mr. Norman W. Palmer found two homeless Mr. Norman W. Paimer found two nomeless young men—James Sharkey and Edward Hanlon—each eighteen years old, huddled about an old can in which they had built a fire. He called Policeman Shields, of the West Thirty-seventh street station, and he arrested Sharkey and Hanlon.

They told Justice McMahon in the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday morning that they had found the cellar door open and wandered in to sleep. They were cold and built a fire on the ash can. Then alternately they "rushed the growler" and were having a good time when Mr. Palmer discovered them. covered them.

The Justice committed them in default of $500 for six months.

When I called upon Captain Frankin Bartlett at his office the Captain said it was an error to say he was unnerved by the set-to, for, as a matter of fact, he was not. He saw Richardson, Banta and Van Houten ripping off their chevrons and immediately applied for their reduction to the ranks,
